

LA CÔTE DE L'ANGE
Châteauneuf-du-Pape

RATING

89

TASTING DATE

8/16/2019

MATURITY

unavailable

REVIEWED BY

Jeb Dunnuck

SOURCE

Southern Rhône Part
1: The 2017s From bottle and 2018s From Barrel

REVIEW

Print

The 2018 Côtes Du Rhône shows a darker fruited style as well as notions of crushed violets, ground black pepper, and earth. It's soft, supple, nicely textured, and is another delicious, complex wine from this estate.

This estate continues to produce a classic, traditional style of Châteauneuf du Pape that has loads to love. In addition, readers shouldn't overlook their white (and their Côtes du Rhône)!